Platform:
Real Estate App for Real Estate Professionals and Buyers

About Hommtown:

Hommtown is an iOS app that combines social media and real estate listings showcasing agent's knowledge of homes and their community through video format. It is designed to revolutionize the real estate experience for realtors and buyers. By placing realtors front and center and providing an immersive local experience, Hommtown empowers realtors to excel in their marketing efforts and enables buyers to make more informed decisions. With a focus on efficiency and personalized service, Hommtown is transforming the way real estate transactions are conducted.

Hommtown is now available for download on the iOS App Store, offering realtors and buyers in Los Angeles a fresh approach to real estate exploration and transactions. "As realtors ourselves, we understand the challenges and opportunities in today's real estate market," said Gary Wat and Robert Cheng, Founders of Hommtown. "We created Hommtown to empower realtors in Los Angeles and beyond, enabling them to shine as local experts and offer an unmatched level of service to their clients. Our app revolutionizes the home buying experience, making it more immersive, efficient, and personalized."
